DESTINATION INFORMATION

Alua Village Fuerteventura is located in the south of Fuerteventura, one of the best places in the world for surfing. Fuerteventura is also known for being a paradise that seems to be part of an entirely different planet, with the fury of the volcanic eruptions that can be seen all over its landscape.

Local Points of Interest:

- Morro Jable (4.8 mi / 8 km) – Nearest village, Morro Jable is located near the beach and offers a large choice of shops and activities (kitesurf, snorkelling, boat tours, bars and restaurants)
- Cofete (35 mi / 20 km) – The most virgin beach of all Canary Island, impresses because of its size. In addition to an incredible beach over 12km, in length you can also enjoy the mountain massif of Jandía.

- Betancuria (55 mi / 50 km) – Administrative capital of Fuerteventura until 1834, Betancuria is located in a valley and less arid area of the island. You can discover the church of Santa Maria, history and traditional products.

Local attractions:

Experiences on land

The stunning natural beauty surrounding the Alua Village is the perfect place to live unforgettable experiences. Hiking in volcanic, desert or seaside landscapes, mountain bike routes with unparalleled views, jeep or quad trips to discover typical villages of the island or beautiful beaches such as Corralejo and El Cotillo, a visit to Oasis Park Fuerteventura for a camel safari or to swim among sea lions. These are just a few of the many options available. Just ask for more information.

Water fun

Acua Water Park in Corralejo is a lot of fun for adults and children alike. Enjoy an unforgettable day for the whole family with attractions and activities for all tastes and ages and a wide variety of dining options that will delight the little ones.

With over 25,000 m² of endless fun, the water park has over 14 attractions, including a wave pool, a giant jacuzzi and rivers full of slopes and curves.

Biosphere Reserve

Fuerteventura was named a Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO in May 2009. The reserve covers a total area of 352,813 hectares and is the largest in the Canary Islands.

Fuerteventura has 13 community attractions and 9 special protected areas for birds. The island has a wide variety of ecosystems: from deserts to semi-desert areas and coastal and marine habitats.

The island's natural, marine, cultural, ethnological, landscape and geological value have earned it the title of Biosphere Reserve: a recognition of its commitment to renewable energies, water management and responsible fishing.

Fuerteventura, the oldest island in the Canary Islands, has an extensive natural heritage, fruit of its aridity and the presence of a rich and diverse marine environment. Its strong island personality is reflected in a cultural heritage full of customs and traditions.
