Inspiring Iceland, A Women Only Tour

Discover Iceland's outstanding natural beauty, traditions and inspiring women on a 10-day premium guided tour

July 7 to July 16, 2023

Agnes
Sigurðardóttir

Meet Agnes, owner and founder of one of the first microbreweries on the island of Iceland. With limited opportunities for female employment in the area, Agnes started to project in 2003. She wanted to use the clear water from the area to create something unique, to both diversify the local economy and support her family. She now produces quality beer with her husband using Icelandic water from the nearby Sólarfjall mountain.

Helga Kristín
Torfadóttir

Learn from volcanologist Helga Kristín Torfadóttir, an expert guide during the Golden Circle tour. A fantastic storyteller and educator, she is carving a name for herself in a traditionally male dominated field. Helga's expertise takes travellers to Thingvellir National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site and home of the oldest ongoing parliament in the world. See the famous hot springs at the Geysir Geothermal Area and the iconic Gullfoss "Golden Falls."

Ásta Krístrún
Ragnarsdóttir

Take a storytelling walk with Ásta Krístrún, author, musician and director of the heritage museum Bakkastofa. Ásta and her husband have turned the house in which she and her 19th-century ancestors grew up into an intriguing cultural center. Explore the various outposts including The House, The Maritime Museum and Kirkjubær or the Old Baiting Shed. Enjoy stories of Ásta's family and learn how they coexisted with volcanoes and geysers as neighbors!
