Treasures of Spain: From the Royal Court of Madrid to the Soul of Andalusia Madrid, Andalusia and Toledo

Travel date: March 28 to April 4, 2026

8 days / 7 nights

Embark on a fascinating journey through some of Spain's most iconic cities, where history, art and culture intertwine with unforgettable landscapes. Beginning in vibrant Madrid, you will discover its royal legacy, grand avenues and unmistakable urban life. The journey continues south through the legendary lands of Don Quixote to Andalusia, a region shaped by its glorious past and unique blend of cultures.

Córdoba and its majestic Mosque, the refined elegance of Seville, and the magical Nasrid splendour of Granada await you with their monuments, flavours and traditions. Finally, Toledo, the imperial city, will transport you to a past where three civilizations coexisted and left an indelible mark. An itinerary full of contrasts and emotions, ideal for those wishing to experience the most authentic essence of Spain.

Itinerary:

Day 1 (March 28): Arrival in Madrid

Welcome to Madrid! Arrival at the airport and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon or evening, we suggest two optional activities (at additional cost) that may be of interest:

- Enjoy the musical Cinderella or The Lion King, theatrical adaptations of classic tales.
- Evening Zambra Flamenco show.

Please contact us if you wish to add any of these options to your trip.

Overnight at the hotel.

Breakfast included.

Hotel: Meliá Castilla or similar.

Day 2 (March 29): Discover Madrid

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, panoramic tour of the city; we will explore its medieval origins, such as the Arab fortress, by walking through the Barrio de la Morería, known for the age of its buildings and the flavours of its traditional taverns. We will visit Madrid de los Austrias from the era of Felipe II, with its Renaissance and Baroque buildings in Puerta del Sol, Plaza Mayor, and Plaza de la Villa. We will see Madrid de los Borbones and the urban layout developed under Carlos III, including the Palacio Real, Fuente de Cibeles, Fuente de Neptuno, and Puerta de Alcalá. We will admire 19th-century landmarks such as the elegant Plaza de Oriente and the Museo del Prado. We will explore contemporary Madrid, featuring avenues such as Gran Vía, Paseo de la Castellana, Barrio de Salamanca, Parque del Oeste, Ciudad Universitaria, as well as the modern commercial and financial districts of the city, and the Estadio Santiago Bernabéu. Afternoon at your leisure.

Accommodation at the hotel. Breakfast included.

Hotel: Santa Justa or similar.

Treasures of Spain: From the Royal Court of Madrid to the Soul of Andalusia Madrid, Andalusia and Toledo

Day 3 (March 30): Off to Córdoba and Seville

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure southbound across the land of Don Quixote, "The Man of La Mancha," passing by the classic inn of Don Quixote in Puerto Lápice. Crossing the natural pass of Despeñaperros, we arrive in Andalusia, a region with an extraordinary inheritance from a splendid past. Arrival in Córdoba.

Visit its breathtaking Mosque-Cathedral, a place that calms the mind and spirit as we stroll through the narrow streets of the Jewish Quarter. In the afternoon, after a short two-hour drive, arrival in Seville. Overnight at the hotel.

Breakfast included.

Hotel: Meliá Lebreros or similar.

Day 4 (March 31): Seville in All Its Splendor

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, monumental and panoramic tour of the city, including admission to the Cathedral, the second largest in the Catholic world after St. Peter's in Rome. Visit the iconic Santa Cruz Quarter, the natural setting of Carmen and the birthplace of the "Don Juan" legend. María Luisa Park and Plaza de España. Afternoon at leisure to discover the many perspectives and distinctive flavors of this vibrant, light-filled city. Overnight at the hotel.

Breakfast included.

Hotel: Meliá Lebreros or similar.

Day 5 (April 1)

Breakfast at the hotel and departure eastbound along the Caliphate Route toward the heart of Andalusia, passing endless stretches of olive groves. Arrival in Granada and its stunning monumental complex, the last stronghold of the Nasrid Kingdom until 1492. Visit the world-famous Alhambra and the Generalife Gardens—its fountains, gardens, and courtyards, with their views and sounds, inspired authors like W. Irving in his Tales of the Alhambra. Overnight at the hotel. In the evening, optional Zambra Flamenca show.

Breakfast included.

Hotel: Meliá Granada or similar.

Day 6 (April 2): Granada Awaits

Breakfast at the hotel and a full free day to enjoy the Nasrid capital. Granada is far more than the Alhambra; its Muslim heritage permeates every corner of the city and blends with Christian tradition, giving rise to a truly unique place. Overnight at the hotel.

Breakfast included.

Hotel: Meliá Granada or similar.

Day 7 (April 3): On to Toledo and Back to Madrid

Granada – Toledo – Madrid

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure northbound to the impressive Imperial City of Toledo—set beneath the Castilian sky and encircled by the Tagus River—recognized as a World Heritage Site and cradle of civilizations, where Christians, Muslims, and Jews once coexisted. A distillation of Spain's art, history, and spirituality, the entire city is a National Monument. Brief guided tour of this historic city, strolling through its old quarter and narrow streets. Continue to Madrid. Overnight at the hotel.

Breakfast included.

Hotel: Meliá Castilla or similar.

Day 8 (April 4): Farewell, Spain!

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the airport.

Breakfast included.
